ABOUT THE STATE HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

Report that the Bardwell hotel in Rutland had been sold to Stephen J. Clark of Cooperstown, N. Y., is denied.

Three children of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Wood of Derby have been ill with scarlet fever and the youngest died last week. Rev. C. B. Atwood read his resignation

A. G. Rice has resigned as a member of the board of listers for the town of Rockingham, being also overseer of the poor, which office is all the responsibila vacancy caused by death.

Word has been received that Howard Cady, son of Rev. Gilbert Cady of Chazy Y., a former resident of Middlebury been wounded in France. Young Undy is reported to have lost one eye and to have been seriously wounded otherwise. He is now in a hospital there.

When water failed to run to the house from a spring on the land of A. D. the water flow was all right.

Rev. George Abner Williams, principal of the Vermont academy at Saxtons River from 1889 to 1895, died suddenly of heart failure while attending Sunday school in the Baptist church in Kalamazoo, Mich., last Sunday. Mr. Williams had been professor of Greek in Kalamazoo college since 1902.

A stampede of 20 cavalry horses from Fort Ethan Allen caused excitement in Winooski Wednesday. One of them knocked down a man and he was so severely injured that he had to be taken home. As the horses rushed wildly through the streets, the children were going to the public schools and there were many narrow escapes.

Seven women at the Home for Aged Women in Burlington have been very busy on Red Cross work, two of them, Mrs. L. W. Ray and Mrs. Arvilla Hyde, having together knit 50 sweaters, the other five women knitting 19. They have been busy on all kinds of work for the soldiers, as well as the knitting, and only a few days before her death, Miss Chandonette, an inmate of the home, who was 92 years old, snipped pieces for a comfort pillow.

Nine-year-old Violet Harris narrowly missed serious injuries or death a few days ago when the large roll door of the barn at her home in South Windham fell, pinning her beneath it. She could not get out, but one of her playmates, Miss Elsie Farr, aged eight years, lifted it enough so the Harris girl crawled out. She was unable to stand at first, but aside from the nervous shock and a few bruises was not injured.

Seventy years of life together up to Feb. 1 is the record of Mr. and Mrs. George Abel of Orleans. They were married in Swanton, and Levi Corliss of St. Albans, a cousin of the bride, one of the witnesses, is still living. Mr. Abel was 90 years old March 13, and has a fairer skin and clearer eye than many men 25 years younger. He has voted for every Republican president since Lincoln and hopes for another chauce. Mrs. Abel will be 89 next September and busies herself about the house. As a child she was not strong, but has outlived her whole family.

The body found in a deserted creamery in Pownal a few days ago and thought to be that of a tramp, has been identified as that of M. F. Coffey, a printer, who left Shelburne Falls, Mass., about a month ago, intending to go to Sandy Creek, N. Y. When he left the Massachusetts town he had $200 in war say ings stamps and $400 insurance in the typographical union. No stamps or mon-ey were on the body when it was found,

Goodyear Eight Percent Cumulative Second Preferred

A $15,000,000 issue, offered at par, yielding eight percent.

The balance sheet of The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, shows a net worth of over $62,000,000. And this figure does not take into account the Company's uncapitalized assets of patents, good-will and reputation - which are carried in the financial statement at one dollar.

Net assets of over $320 for every share of the issue, and quick assets of over $136 for every share give it strength. The conditions of its retirement (providing for stipulated annual) purchases in the open market) give it ready marketability.

Exempt from personal property tax in Ohio. Connectieut and New Hampshire, and from the normal Federal Interesting information about the Goodyear business and
